The 100-Days Challenge

Are you in charge of a supermarket chain or other retail formula?
And do you feel the need to improve the productivity of your people?
In that case, De Vries WFM has a very interesting offer for you.

We will improve your productivity per employee with €10,- per hour.
All within 100 days!

This is what we call
The 100-Days Challenge.

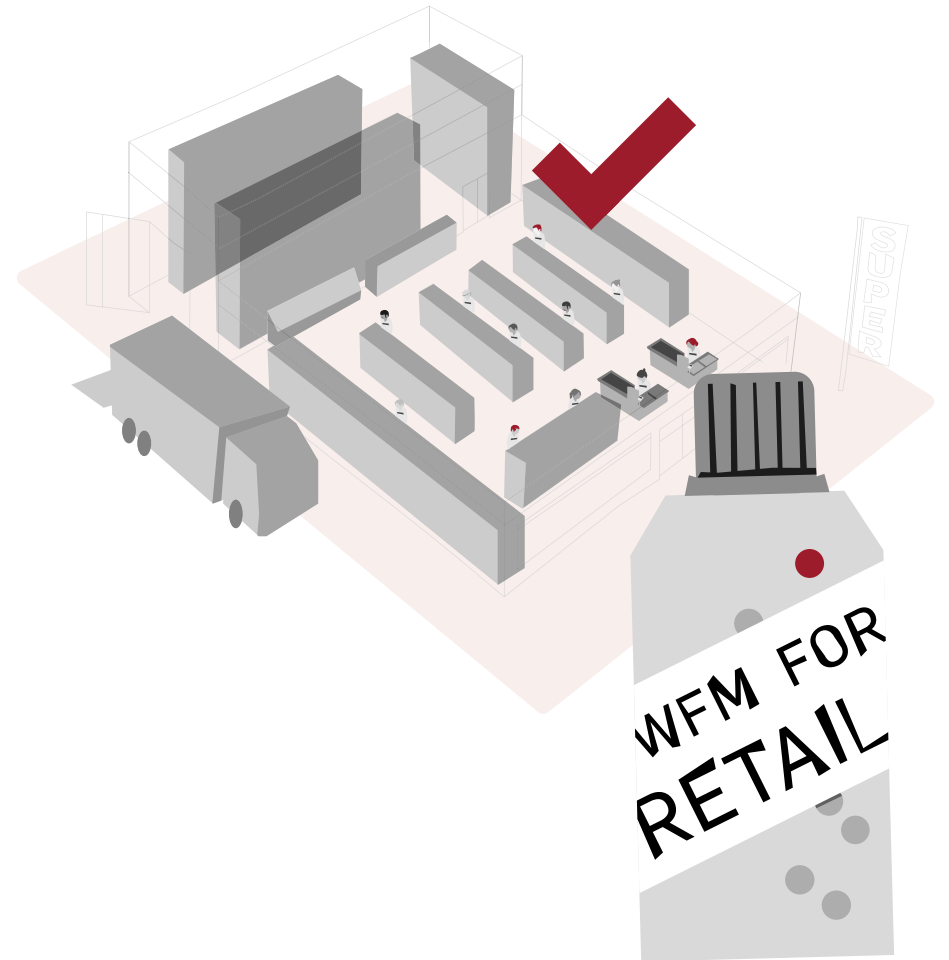

How can we claim this?

De Vries Workforce Management has more than thirty years of experience in the retail sector. During this time, our R&R-Web solution has helped a long list of retail formulas.

All our clients have structurally lowered their labor costs and improved their productivity and shop performance. That makes us sure that we can help just about any retail chain to improve their productivity per employee!

Three examples of a €10,- rise in OPWH (Output Per Worker/Hour).

What's the deal?

All we ask from you is information, the cooperation of a well-informed project manager and a symbolic budget.

Information

- Current productivity figures
- Historical sales information per category
- Access to pay-roll data
- Knowledge of actions

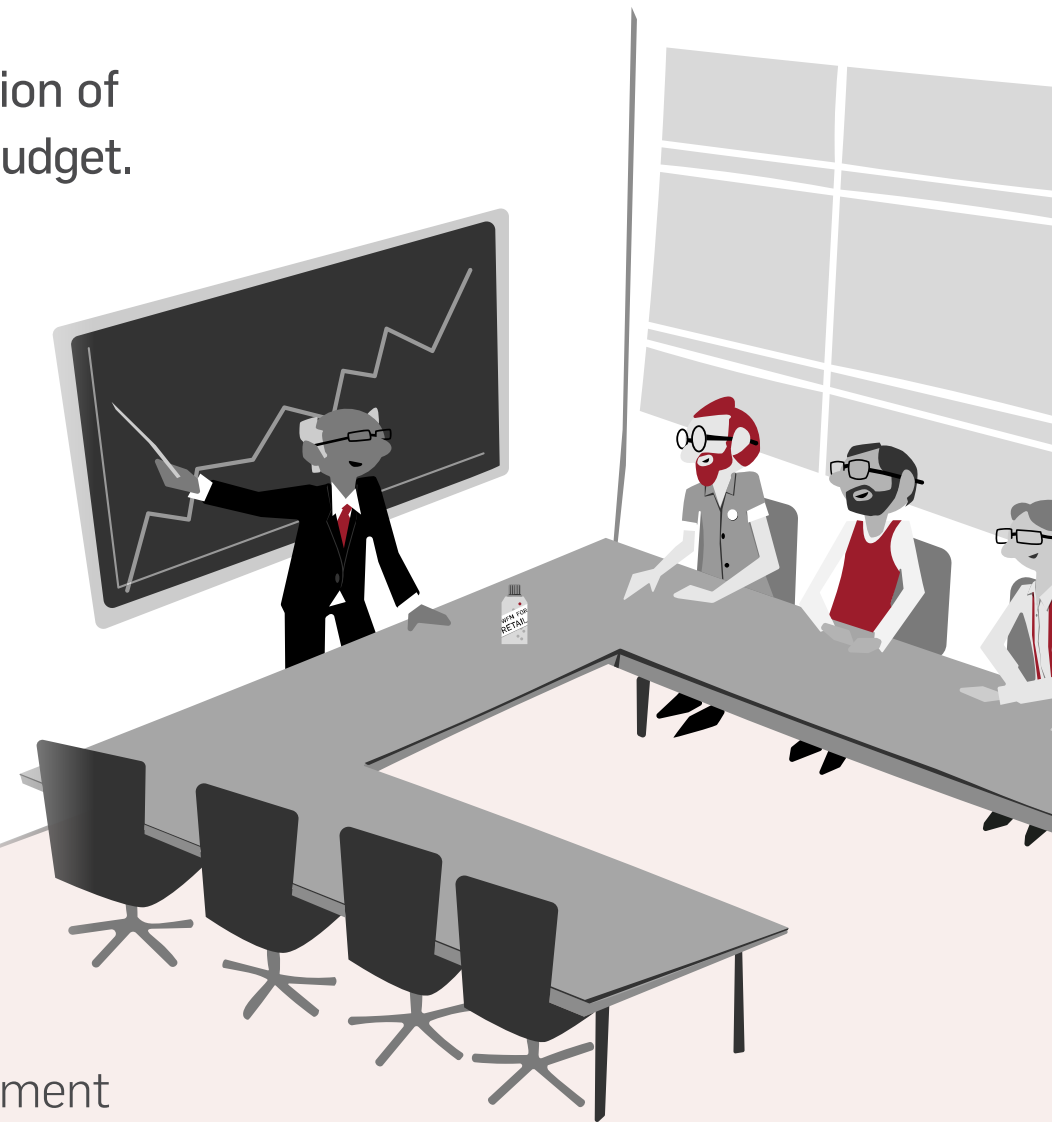

Project manager

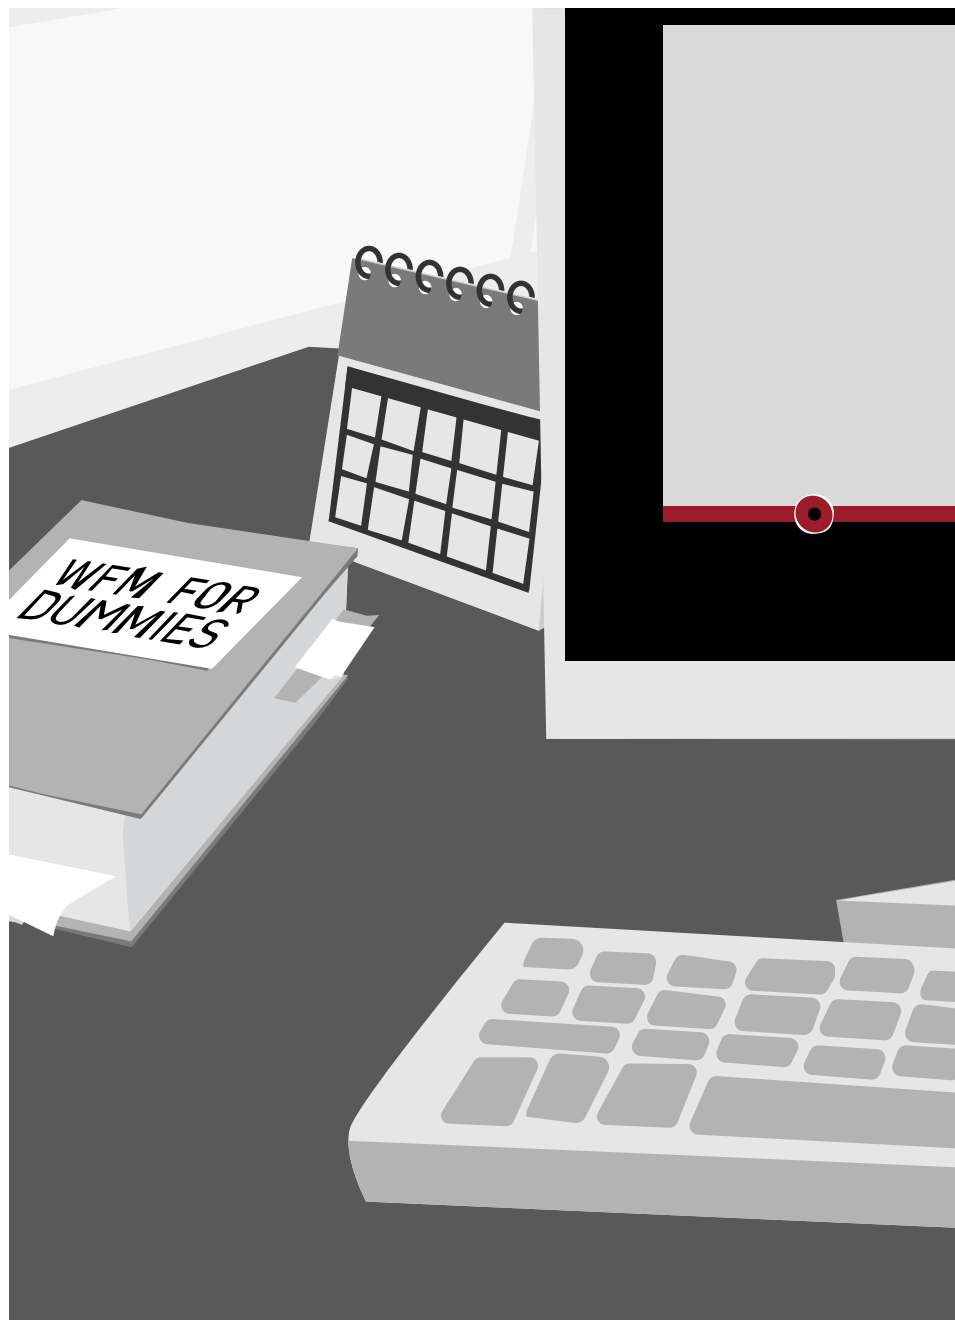

- With planning experience and change authority
- Initial 4 hour meeting, 1 day training
- 2 hours per day availability

Budget

€ 10.000,- 'I am serious'-fee to show your commitment

€ 10.000,- Guarantee fee only due if we do not get input/support

What's the deal?

In return, De Vries WFM will provide everything that is needed to implement R&R-Web and win The 100-Days Challenge!

We will provide

- Free license for 100 days
- Free configuration of your retail formula in the cloud
- WFM Training of one person
- Consulting to get you started and to help you plan people smarter
- 50-Days report, showing the half-way progress
- 100-Days Challenge report, which will show that your productivity per employee per hour has improved with at least €10!
